WORKERS PARTY IN U. S. ENDORSED AS COMMUNIST AGENT

Made Legal Party in Pronouncement of Moscow Internationale

CHICAGO.—The Communist international at Moscow has endorsed the Workers Party as "the legal party of the underground communist party" in the United States, according to a statement issued by Otto Branstetter, secretary of the Socialist party said Monday.

A minority group in the communist party which objected to the rules laid down by Moscow has lost its appeal and the Russians have ordered all members of the communist party who had not joined the Workers Party by July 25, expelled from the organization Mr. Branstetter says.

The Moscow internationale on November 21, 1921, adopted orders covering the new party in America which said in part that:

"The program of the legal party will have to be somewhat restricted. Special measures and slogans which, while not stating the illegal communist purpose, will effectively have the revolutionary effect upon the masses, must be adopted. The legal party must at all times, go as far toward the communist program as is possible while maintaining a legal existence. But, in carrying out these instructions the party must guard itself against the tendency to repudiate or neglect the illegal work—the tendency to become legal in fact as well as in outward appearance. This tendency will be found especially among 'intellectual' members who have little experience in the brutal physical phases of class struggle to which the rank and file workers are always exposed, but from which the intellectuals engaged in legal political work are sometimes shielded. Upon finding themselves in the easier life of legal activities, many will forget that no matter what maneuvers may be upon the public stage, the final class struggle must be, until its end, a brutal fight of physical force."

OMAHA, Neb.—By The Associated Press.—Principal interest in the Nebraska primaries Tuesday centered in the outcome of the race for U. S. Senate nomination on the republican ticket in which R. B. Howell, of Omaha, republican national committeeman, made his campaign "as a forward-looking republican."

FIRST GRAVEL ROAD IN MONROE COUNTY TO BE LAID SOON

State Highway 27 in Jackson County Being Straightened Near Black River Falls

TOMAH, Wis.—The first gravel road to be laid in Monroe county is a piece of reconstruction work one and one-half miles long on Trail No. 12 just outside this city. The present roadway, nine feet in width, will be widened to eighteen feet. The gravel used comes from the Winona, Minn., pits. It is the purpose of Charles Millard, county highway commissioner, to treat all worn out macadam roads in a similar way, as this method seems to be the solution of the road problem for this county.

A splendid piece of road work is nearing completion on State Trunk Highway No. 27 five miles out of Black River Falls in Jackson county. An eight mile stretch of road is being straightened, shortening the line by two miles. The completion of this bit of work makes Route 27 from Black River Falls to Sparta, one of the best roads in Wisconsin.

The common council of this city has voted to install a "white way" to extend a mile from the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul depot to the city park.

On Saturday, July 15, contracts were let for bridges on Monroe county highways in the towns of Wellington, Wilton, Byron, Wells, Jefferson, Portland, Adrian and Oakdale.

ROMANCE OF LA CROSSE IS TALK OF TOWN TODAY

Crowds continue to pour in and out of the Madison Theater to see the Tribune Movie "A Romance of La Crosse." Everyone is commenting on the excellence of the film, and the talent of the cast for the production has all the light and shade of a professional picture, and if you were not acquainted with the young people who take part, it isn't at all improbable that many would think that they were sitting through a regular performance. Of course the whole film is not that way, or it wouldn't send the audience into convulsions like it does. But outside of the funny spots, and to be fair, one must admit that there are many, we still insist that it is a dandy picture.

"How could you let Walter Wagner kiss you like that?" was asked of Polly Altherton, the heroine. Did the director rehearse you like that?

"Of course not. Such an idea," said Polly, "has only come to me about proposing to the girls. Some years ago Olga Nethersole became famous as the foremost exponent of the art of kissing. Can you wonder then that 'A Romance of La Crosse' is packing 'em in to see Walter Wagner go Olga Nethersole one better? Walter's kisses are measured by the mile in this local photoplay and he is the kissingest kissing-bug that ever gave an exhibition of profligate osculation. Don't miss 'A Romance of La Crosse' if you want the best laugh you have had in many a day. It's at the Majestic Theater up to and including July 20th, but go early so you won't have to wait in line for a seat.

Not Twice the Size, but Twice the Soap per Bar

Would you buy coramul mixed with sawdust simply because it might be cheaper than a similar sackful of pure coramul? From why buy ordinary white or yellow laundry soap when it is mixed with "filler" to make a little soap look like a full-size bar?

This may be news to you, but it's something fabric makers have known for years. They avoid the common laundry soap and wash their materials with olive oil soap.

All the energy you spend rubbing "filler" into clothes is wasted, for the "filler" has no cleaning power. Worse than that, it cuts and rots the fabrics. Soon little holes and thin spots appear and you blame the goods or the woman who washes.

Get the new, large, greenish laundry bar called GREEN ARROW, containing "net" filler—but real olive oil and napsin. It's the olive oil whiteness, softness and sweetness that makes new materials so attractive when you buy them. You can keep your clothes like new if you wash them with a soap like this.

Pure GREEN ARROW is made by The Palmolive Co. No soap maker could afford to use olive oil in a home laundry soap if it were not for an enormous output of olive oil products, in which The Palmolive Co. leads the world. Every home that gets this large greenish laundry bar gets the benefit of their quantity production in the form of a finer laundry soap than you ever dreamed you could have, and one that goes nearly twice as far as the ordinary because it is all soap—hence all cleaning power.

It never makes hands red, dry or rough. Order it from your grocer, but be sure to use less soap.

Rivals for Rubber

The radio manufacturers and the makers of briar pipes are rivals for the vulcanized rubber which is on the market and the extreme activity in radio circles has put a crimp in the pipe business. Deliveries of the rubber hits to the pipe manufacturers are from 16 to 18 weeks overdue. It is said that $500,000 annually is a conservative estimate of the amount spent for pipe hits.

A simplified method is here given for the quick removal of hairy or fuzzy growths and rarely is more than one treatment required: Mix a stiff paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every hair has vanished. This simple treatment cannot cause injury, but care should be exercised to get real delatone.

Railroad Jack appeared in an impressive memory test at the weekly luncheon of the Lions club at the Stoddard hotel Monday noon and incidentally drew a record attendance for this organization. Jack answered a rapid fire of questions about persons famous in history, giving dates of their birth and death and other interesting facts concerning their lives. One member of the club took down the dates as Railroad Jack recited them off and later looked up the biographies, finding that all of the facts given by the memory expert were correct.

Members of the club said it was a fine entertainment.

M'HENRY DENIES HE'S IN GOVERNOR CONTEST TO SPLIT PARTY VOTE

Oshkosh Mayor Opens Campaign With Speech at Home Town Monday Night

WOULD TAKE STATE GOVERNMENT AWAY FROM MADISON "CLIQUE"

Declares Wisconsin Absolutely Under Control of Politicians

OSHKOSH, Wis.—By Associated Press.—Declaring that he was not entering the Wisconsin political contest as a candidate for nomination as Governor at the September primaries to split the party vote Mayor A. C. M'Henry opened his campaign here Monday night with a speech which he said stressed the "crisis" before the voters that of returning the state government to the people, and taking it away from "a political clique at Madison."

The candidate, who declared himself to be a "constitutional republican," expressed opposition to "radicals and prohibitionists." He said that he was in favor of a sales tax, and of the activities of the state government, curtailing expenses and cutting taxes. Mayor M'Henry said that he was opposed to prohibition.

At the present time this state is absolutely controlled by a political clique at Madison, dominating everything," the candidate asserted. "They regulate everything from a glass of beer to the money the state can pay its loved ones when they die, and satisfied with robbing them while they live, they rob their children of their savings when they die."

"Madison regulates everything on the earth in the heavens and in the water. It protects everything but the people. And still some people think it presumptuous for an independent republican candidate to challenge by his free and fearless candidacy this reign of state socialism."

Mayor M'Henry expressed opposition to the commission form of government and to governmental regulation. He declared that the people have a radical candidate, a home city candidate and a constructive republican candidate for Governor, and said that as the constructive candidate he would appeal for election.

FATHER A. W. GARA, INDEPENDENCE, DIES AFTER MASS SUNDAY

Pastor Found Lying Dead on Sofa in Parish House by Assistant

The Rev. Fr. Andrew W. Gara, aged 62, pastor of the St. Peter and Paul church at Independence, Wis., died suddenly on Sunday at his home following his return from the church where a little earlier he had preached a sermon. He was found dead on the sofa by the assistant priest, the Rev. Fr. Miszkowski, when he returned to the parish house shortly before noon. The physician who was called was of the opinion that death had taken place some time between 11:20 and 11:40 a. m.

Two services were held at the church Sunday, at 8 a. m. and 10 a. m. Father Gara preached the sermon at the 10 a. m. service and appeared to be in his usual health. After the sermon, however, he went to his home leaving the completion of the service to his assistant. When the assistant went to the home of the priest shortly before noon, he found the screen door hooked. Getting no response to his call, he forced the door and found the priest lying on the couch apparently dead. A physician was called at once and found that death had taken place probably half an hour before, soon after the priest returned from the church service.

The physician states that probably the exertion connected with preaching the sermon brought on the fatal attack. The priest, he says, had complained of pain in his chest for a few days previously.

The Rev. Fr. Gara had been in charge of the St. Peter and Paul church at Independence for the past 20 years and was well known throughout western Wisconsin. While the arrangements for the funeral had not been fully completed, it was announced that the service will be held Thursday at 10 a. m. at the St. Peter and Paul church.

HUSBAND IS HOME FROM A HOSPITAL FOR SILVER WEDDING

This was a doubly happy day for Casper Luther, 624 Hager street. The first enjoyable event of the day was his removal from the hospital where he has been confined for a month since struck by a train in the south side Milwaukee yards. Equally delightful was the realization that he arrived home on his silver wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther spent the day at home with their only daughter, Mrs. E. A. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther were married in La Crosse 25 years ago. Mr. Luther was born in La Crosse, Minn., and Mrs. Luther in Ohio, coming to La Crosse with her parents when two years of age. Her father, George Danberry, was for many years a well known river steamer engineer.

BAR PROVISIONS OF SEVERSON ACT ARE HELD LEGAL

Court Upholds Clause Requiring Removal of Standing Bars
in Soft Drink Parlors

LEGISLATURE HELD WITHIN POWERS IN PASSING LAW

Bar Gives Opportunity for Violating Dry Act Ruling Holds

MADISON, Wis.—The provision of the Severson Act prohibiting bars was held reasonable in a decision of the supreme court handed down Tuesday.

The legislature acted entirely within its powers and did not go to unreasonable lengths in abolishing the bar, the tribunal decisions declares. The court, in effect, sets forth that the bar affords a temptation to violate the dry act, by giving the drink dispenser an opportunity to import a "kick" to soft drinks by merely hiding behind it. The decision follows:

"It was the legislative purpose to prohibit the erstwhile rather distinctive saloon custom of standing at the bar and consuming drinks. It is said this is an arbitrary, biased and self-sufficient regulation. Without passing to consider whether a court should declare unreasonable and void any regulation or condition attached to the prosecution of a business which the legislature may entirely prohibit, we must express our disagreement with appellant condition in this respect.

Saloons Abolished

"We must bear in mind that the function of the legislature was firmly but considerably to usher out the old time saloon. It was known that many of these places would therefore be devoted to the sale of non-intoxicating liquors by the old proprietors, that for a time at least they would be patronized by old time customers from whom would come many importunities for intoxicating liquors, presenting strong temptation to violate the law prohibiting the sale of such liquor. No doubt one of the purposes of the legislation was to suppress a custom and practice obtaining in the old time saloon. Every one knows that the high standing bar shields the action of the bartender who stands behind the bar, making it entirely possible for him to introduce intoxicants into so-called soft drinks. The legislature might well have thought that the prevention of drinking at the bar would have a decided tendency to discontinue the preparation of drinks behind the bar. The mere fact of preventing drinking at the bar in and of itself requires a change in the method of serving patrons which in time might result in a voluntary abandonment on the part of the proprietor of making any use of a bar in connection with his business of dispensing non-intoxicating drinks. This might well have been in the mind of the legislature and we cannot say that it is an absurd and ridiculous regulation or that it has no tendency to promote the dominant purpose of the legislation."

The validity of sections of the Severson prohibition law which require the removal or alteration of standing bars in soft drink parlors and the licensing of all places selling non-intoxicating beverages was considered in this action by Hugo Albee, a Milwaukee saloon keeper. After Judge E. Ray Stevens in the Dane county circuit court upheld the regulatory provisions of the liquor law in their entirety, appeal was taken to the supreme court, which today reviewed the lower court finding.

The question of what constitutes a non-intoxicating beverage was also involved in the action, because of the claim of the plaintiff that soda water, ordinary forms of pop, and the various kinds of fruit juices all contained traces of alcohol. Contention was made that a strict interpretation of the law would require the licensing of all drug stores and the removal of all counters from their interior.

In his arguments before the Supreme Court, J. E. Messerschmidt, assistant attorney general, took the position that the court give what he said to be a "reasonable" interpretation of the law, establishing that any drink that contained less than one-tenth of one per cent alcohol, was no longer legally non-intoxicating. According to the statute any drink containing alcohol in excess of one-tenth of one per cent is non-intoxicating, and its sale for consumption on the premises can only be made by licensed places.

Albee argued that the licensing feature of the laws was unreasonable and impossible for enforcement. He asked that the court hold unconstitutional the sections of the statute requiring removal of standing bars and the licensing of all soft drink parlors.

PRESIDENT HARDING TELLS OPERATORS TO OPEN MINES

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The president's statement to the coal operators, following his receipt of their reply to his proposal of last week for reopening of the mines, was as follows:

"I have heard your decision. I would not be frank if I did not confess a disappointment in your lack of unanimity. To the large majority of you, who have pledged readiness to resume activities under the government proposal, I must express my own and the public's gratitude. We have now reached a point, owing to the refusal of mine workers and a minority of your operators to accept the proposed arbitration, where the good offices of the government in seeking a voluntary adjustment of the dispute between mine operators and mine workers are without avail.

"I cannot permit you to depart without reminding you that coal is a national necessity, the ample supply of which is essential likewise to common welfare and to interstate commerce.

"The freedom of action on the part of workmen and on the part of employers does not measure in importance with that of public welfare and national security. I, therefore, invite you to return to your mine properties and resume operations.

In their letter to the president explaining their situation, the operators had said:

"We have given most careful and thorough consideration to the proposal submitted by you on July 16, supplemented by your statement of July 15, and we are not only in entire accord with your plan to establish a general tribunal to inquire into all the facts in our industry and make recommendations for the solution of our fundamental problem, but we urge that such a plan be put into effect by you.

"We also wish to remind you that we have already proposed the broad principle of arbitration in our previous conferences with the officials of the administration and with the representatives of the miners. We still stand on that broad principle and are in entire accord with you in that respect.

"We did have in mind discussing with you certain recommendations as to the machinery to make an arbitration plan effective, and to accomplish the result which the country and you yourself desire.

"In view of the contingencies that confront us, and the carrying conditions in the different coal producing districts of the country, our conference has decided to answer your proposal by districts rather than as a whole, and we attach hereto statements of the positions taken by the several districts represented in the conference of operators assembled at your request in Washington.

"All of the operators of your conference unite in supporting the principle of arbitration and in collectively bargaining and your high motives in calling us together.

"And, finally they say to you and to the American people that each and every one of them stands ready in this crisis to put his property and his own services at your disposal and command at any instance.

HUNDREDS DRIVEN FROM HOMES BY GOTHAM EXPLOSION

Women and Children Thrown to Pavement by Force of Blast; Two Firemen Killed

NEW YORK.—A series of explosions in a six story warehouse here Tuesday shattered windows for blocks around. Women and children fleeing from nearby tenements were hurled to the pavements by the force of the blasts.

Falling debris killed Fireman J. J. Schopmeyer and injured three firemen.

Police and firemen carried many frightened women and children out of neighboring Greenwich village tenements.

More than an hour after the first blast occurred, intermittent explosions continued within the warehouse filling Greenwich village with fumes and smoke which forced hundreds of people to abandon their lodgings.

The greatest array of the apparatus since the Equitable Building fire turned out.

All of the pulverizers started by the Edison Company were ordered.

An engine of one of five fire companies summoned from Brooklyn struck a curb as it was rounding a corner and hurled two firemen against the wheels. Fireman Jas. H. Mylone was killed and Fireman James Carroll was seriously injured.

LA FOLLETTE'S CAMPAIGN IS OPENED MONDAY

Senator La Follette said he was the great issue in the present congressional election. Senator La Follette declared his opposition to the measure unless its schedule of rates was reduced. The ship subsidy bill, another measure which the Harding administration will endeavor to bypass upon the American people, he said, expressing his opposition to the proposal.

His support for adjusted compensation for soldiers was expressed by Senator La Follette. "There are those including the President of the United States," he said, "who declare that the government cannot afford to pay these soldiers any measure of compensation for the service they rendered their country. Billions for the railroads, for ship subsidies, for the profits in the form of tax exemption, and for military expansion, but not one cent as compensation to service men.

Bonuses for Soldiers

"The same firm convictions that influenced me in opposing entrance into the war of this country, leads me to oppose the strongest support for every measure of just and righteous compensation for our soldiers. I have not changed," Senator La Follette said, "once the war was declared, against my judgment; I did what I could to lighten the burden and insure the safety and success of our soldiers.

"Every dollar of compensation due the men ought to be taken out of the pockets of the war profiteers.

After explaining his war stand, Senator La Follette took up a discussion of state issues which he said were as important as those facing the country. He gave his endorsement to the candidacy of Gov. J. J. Blaine for the Republican nomination for governor and to the candidacy of the other members of the La Follette Progressive Republican ticket.

"Wisconsin occupies a proud place in the family of Progressive states," the senator said. "She was the pioneer state in progressive legislation, and still ranks among her sisters as a leading progressive state of the union.

"The question before the voters of Wisconsin now is: Shall we re-elect Governor Blaine and the entire progressive republican state ticket with a progressive legislature, or shall the state be turned back to the forces of reaction which formerly dominated it," he declared. "There is no more striking proof of the strength of the progressive sentiment in Wisconsin than the fact that the reactionary forces of the state find it to their interest to claim to be progressive."

State issues were outlined by the senator as including repeal of the Esch-Cummings railroad law, opposition to the ship subsidy proposal, opposition to Fordney-McCumber tariff measure, amendment to the constitution to prevent child labor, opposition to Newberryism, to amendment of the primary law, publicity of income tax returns, support for soldier housing legislation, larger taxes on incomes and inheritances.

Need Progressives in Office

"This declaration of principles made by the Progressive Republicans shows clearly that the alignment on the political issues in Wisconsin is the same as that in the nation," Senator La Follette declared. "On the one side is the great mass of the people struggling for political rights and economic freedom; on the other are the great financial interests of the country struggling to retain the power and special privileges they have enjoyed so long.

In national affairs, Senator La Follette said that the administration has been "too completely oblivious to the needs and point of view of the common man, that the legislation passed and proposed by Congress has aggravated the industrial conditions instead of relieving them."

In some detail he outlined the Esch-Cummings railroad law which he opposed. He censured the revenue bill enacted by Congress, the achievement of which he said was to reap the excess profits tax on corporations, which he estimated saved the corporations 450 million dollars in taxes. The senator described how in his opinion he saved the people $250,000,000 by moving what he described to be a joker to the bill, exempting foreign corporations to be relieved from taxes on income derived from foreign sources.

He attacked the army and navy bills for their large appropriations and criticized the leasing of oil lands to private concerns. Senator La Follette said that he would take up each one of the issues mentioned by him separately during the campaign and would explain his stand in detail to the voters as the contest progressed.

COMMON COUNCIL MAY BUY BUILDING ON STATE STREET

Purchase of Thill-Manning-Whalen Building to be Considered Tonight

The common council at its adjourned meeting to be held tonight will consider the purchase of the Thill-Manning-Whalen building opposite the city hall on State street.

When the matter was first discussed last Friday evening at the session of the council, sentiment of the aldermen was apparently unanimous for the purchase of the building. The building is on the market for a consideration of $21,582.50. It was announced at the meeting Friday.

It has been suggested that the city purchase the building with a view to establishing a municipal garage, to house and repair all of the cars owned and operated by the city. It was also suggested that the building might be used for a new central police station. It was expected that the council would take final action on the matter at the adjourned session tonight.

OFFERS 2 MILLION IN RUBLES TO PAY CITIZENSHIP FEE

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—An applicant for citizenship Tuesday left 2,000,000 rubles at the naturalization office in the court house. The old value was about $1,100,000, but the present value is estimated at fifty cents. The rubles were in 20 notes of 100,000 rubles each. The applicant was told they could not be accepted as legal tender for the naturalization fee.

TEN INDICTED FOR WAR-TIME LUMBER CONTRACT FRAUDS

Conspiracy to Defraud U. S.
Out of More than Million Dollars is Charged

WASHINGTON.—An indictment against ten persons charging conspiracy to defraud the United States out of more than $1,000,000 in connection with the disposition of government lumber following the war, was returned Tuesday by the special federal grand jury which has been in session since June 1, investigating the transactions.

The indictment was the first to be reported by the grand jury empaneled to investigate war frauds for which inquiry congress appropriated $500,000 for the use by Attorney General Daugherty and a special corps of assistants.

HARDING ACTS ON REJECTION OF MEDIATION

arbitrate. A majority of the districts represented accepted the president's proposal unconditionally, while a minority, subscribing to the general principles of arbitration and collective bargaining, nevertheless insisted upon imposing special conditions. After listening carefully to their report the president replied urging reopening of the mines at once under federal protection.

No Winter Coal Famine

The president's reply, it was explained, marked the exhaustion of his patience with both sides in his efforts to bring the strike to an end.

He is determined to get coal for the country this winter at all hazards. His statement that coal is a necessity to interstate commerce needed no emphasis, it was pointed out, to indicate how thoroughly he has made up his mind to employ the powers of the federal government to get coal mined.

Operators, after listening to the president's reply, stated they would reopen their mines and attempt to produce coal if they can get the workers and government protection. They will offer the reduced wage scale which they put into effect on April 1.

Gompers Pessimistic

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Prediction was made Tuesday by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, that President Harding's invitation to the bituminous coal operators to return to their properties and resume operation would result in no appreciable increase in the production of coal.

Declaring that coal could be had in ample quantities "the moment justice is done," Mr. Gompers in a formal statement said the great need of the hour was "a normal, natural compromise between the interested parties," and that "when a half million men are deprived of their livelihood for the role of drums, the rattling of sabres and the pounding of the mailed fist."

"The country is drifting toward a state of irresponsibility in dealing with both the coal and railroad strikes," said the labor chief. "Tribunals from employers and from government officials are sufficiently alike in thought and context to indicate the close bond of sympathy between the two forces. The situation is one well calculated to cause the gravest concern in every quarter.

Won't Increase Production

"The president invites the mine owners to return to their properties and resume operations. Surely the president does not expect that these owners of mines are going to dig coal. There are not enough of them here, all of them are more or less in a state of mind that they would not know how to dig coal even if they were in condition to dig coal and wanted to do so. Who, then, is to do the mining when the mine owners resume operations?"

"The miners who are on strike are not going to dig coal until the strike is ended. The non-union mines are and have been at work and their number cannot be increased materially. The army may go to the mining districts, but the army is not composed of coal miners.

"The fact is that there is nobody to mine coal until the coal miners now on strike return to the mines. They will return to the mines gladly and unconditionally as soon as the mine owners agree with them on terms and conditions of employment. 'The responsibility for this grave crisis is upon the mine owners. It is on no one else. No matter what the government may say or what hostile newspapers may say, the mine owners are the guilty parties.'

Illinois Tied Up

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—By The Associated Press.—State law forbids the working of Illinois coal mines by any but licensed miners and the Tamm Act forbids the importation of workers, "tying the state of Illinois up tighter than any state in the union." Robert M. Medill, state director of mines and minerals declared Tuesday afternoon, when informed that President Harding had ordered the reopening of the mines.

Pittsburgh to Re-open

PITTSBURGH.—Important mines in the Pittsburgh district will be opened without delay under the plan proposed by President Harding. It was stated here Tuesday afternoon, although some of the companies have contracted to close up the pits with a view to early resumption. In two mines coal has been cut and locally the machinery is started. Several weeks it was said would be required before the mines would be ready for even a semblance of normal coal movement.

"FLAPPER-FOTO" CAUSES WAR

MISS GLADYS LAVERLY'S "FLAPPER-FOTO"

EUREKA, Calif.—This is the story of a "flapper-foto" that caused a school war.

Also, this is the photograph. Also, this little city has recognized the right of a high school graduate to appear in "make-up."

Miss Gladys Laverly caused the "revolt."

It had been arranged that photos of high school graduates would appear in the annual publication in "defensive garb." But Miss Laverly didn't like the looks of her photo. She had another one taken showing her with are no longer able to obtain coal here, according to Walter Fitzgerald, local marine insurance agent. A comprehensive canvass of the docking companies today failed to produce sufficient coal to fill the bunkers of the G. J. Grammer, Cleveland, of the Valley Steamship line, when the owners telegraphed Mr. Fitzgerald, local agent, for a supply of fuel coal. The Grammer's bunkers carry 200 tons but even this amount was not available.

Despite protestation of the docking companies made last week, that the coal supply would stand up for days, the coal men said they are hauling the few tons they have on hand for regular customers and could not sell to freighters that did not regularly make the port of Milwaukee.

last against class legislation. "The law must be made to treat workers and employees alike," he continued. "In more than 90 cases the railroads have refused to abide by decisions of the labor board. The federal court says that the board is without power to enforce its decisions, and the railroads have refused to abide by them, yet the unions are expected to.

Boosts LaFollette

"You have been told in the past to keep politics out of your organizations but now you are drawn into the political arena and your only hope is to control your representation. There is a movement on foot in Wisconsin to defeat the best man the state has ever known," Robert M. La Follette.

"Wall Street says it is worth $1,000,000 to defeat La Follette. If it is worth that to them to defeat him, it is worth $100,000,000 for the people of the state to return him to office."

In reviewing accounts of the grievances against the labor board's decisions, the speaker attacked the physical examination clause, which he stated, allows the railroads to disqualify a man on any one of 52 different counts. Any man is liable to lose his job at any time he said, "As for seniority, what good is it without a strong organization back of it to put it into effect. The men now out should not worry about losing their pension, for one thing they haven't got it yet, and there is no definite assurance that they ever will get it.

"In regard to time and a half for overtime and holidays, it may be said that the railroads have given it voluntarily for over thirty years—proof positive that some outside influence was at work on the labor board when they decided to cut it out.

"The department of Labor issued a statement that a yearly income of $2175 was necessary to keep a family of five children decently, yet the labor board fixes the minimum salary for certain classes of employees at less than one-quarter of that sum."

Appeal to Women

He closed his talk with an appeal to the women, wives of the members of organized labor societies, to get into the fight and lend their influence to the cause of the strikers. This, he said, could be done by a full appreciation of the conditions as they are, and by the intelligent use of the ballot at election time.

"The present administration must change its policies," he insisted, "or else at the next national election the working people of the country will

Just before publication the faculty found it out.

Someone demolished the copper plate of Miss Laverly.

The student body president threatened to resign. The class all but refused to be graduated. Miss Laverly wept. Things were adjusted at the eleventh hour.

But when graduation night arrived Miss Laverly was given a great ovation by the spectators.

"We're afraid," said some faculty members, "that make-up has been given unanimous endorsement."

put a candidate for president that will sweep the nation such as no party candidate has ever done before.

"Sit Tight"

"Sit tight," were his last words to his audience. "The successful operation of our program depends upon it. The railroads need us and they know it. The only way to win out is to 'sit tight.'"

FREE STATE PLANS BIG DRIVE AGAINST INSURGENT FORCES

Operations Against Irregulars
to be Undertaken on a Big Scale

DUBLIN.—By The Associated Press.—Talk in Dublin continued Tuesday to center around approaching operations on a big scale against the republican irregulars, but the free state commanders so far have successfully hidden their plans. When and where the anticipated movement will begin is still only a matter of conjecture.

Meanwhile the national army troops continue to reap scattered success. It is officially announced they now have captured Bellinglass, Tallow and Newtonbarry.

Including the prisoners captured by free state troops during the recent fighting in Dublin the nationals now hold approximately 2,000 prisoners. The Mountjoy and Kilmalham prisons are said to be filled to capacity.

WOUNDED MAN TAKEN FROM TRAIN DENIES ST. PAUL ROBBERY

Believed to Have Been Wounded in Police Fight; Valuables
Found on Person

MILWAUKEE.—Despite three gunshot wounds in his back and arm, and despite $2,500 and valuable diamonds found on him, Thomas Ward, 24, taken from a C. M. & St. P. train early Tuesday and now in a local hospital, refused to admit to Milwaukee police that he is one of five men who escaped with $30,000 after a revolver battle in St. Paul Monday.

The arrest was made upon urgent requests of the St. Paul police.

Ward was accompanied by June Ramsey, 30, who told police she is his common-law wife. Ward explained the wounds by saying he was accidentally shot while hunting. St. Paul department was notified and detectives are expected soon to take the man to St. Paul.

RUMORS OF NEW ATTACKS IN MINE WAR PROVE FALSE

West Virginia Mining Town
Quiet After Battle in Which Four Were Killed

WELLSBURG, W. Va.—By The Associated Press.—A mine guard stationed on the hill above the Clifton non-union mine where Monday morning Sheriff H. H. Duval and three other men were killed when the property was attacked by a large force of marchers from over the Pennsylvania line, dashed into Cliftonville early Tuesday with the report that men were preparing for another attack.

Captain White, commanding the state constabulary, immediately sent a force into the hills but they returned empty handed.

A terrific rainstorm broke immediately after the alarm was given and Captain White expressed the belief that it had scattered the crowd.

This was only one of many alarms between midnight and dawn. In every instance, however, they have proved false and not a shot has been fired in the village since the battle terminated early Monday.

Acting on orders from Sheriff Tom Duval who is filling his dead father's place, the tent colony of striking miners and their families near the mine was abandoned early Tuesday.

THE SIMPLE DRESS

The Island of Nauru is said to be the richest of the Pacific islands on account of the phosphate and other natural deposits. The native dress for both sexes is tasteful and becoming and suited to the climate. It is a full skirt made of narrow strips of pandanus reeds, reaching to the knees. A growth of fresh flowers and a necklace of flowers or beads complete costume. Sometimes the neckpiece is strung with shark's teeth and finished with a pair of frigate-bird feathers, which hang down the back. The men wear a belt, in which is thrust a wicked looking coconut knife.

A GIGANTIC WAR PICTURE

The "Pantheon de Guerre" was recently placed on exhibition in Paris and is now attracting a great deal of attention. It is a great painting depicting the leading military men and statesmen of the war. It is a circular of 19,296 square feet and contains 15,000 full length portraits. It required the services of 150 artists to do the work. All of the allied nations are represented and the figures are arranged in groups with a suitable background. The work was conceived and carried out by two famous artists, M. Carrier Bellenze and M. Gerguet.

WORKINGS OF KANSAS INDUSTRIAL COURT IS EXPLAINED BY ALLEN

Institution Has Met Every Test Imposed Upon It Says Governor in Madison Talk

MADISON, Wis.—The Kansas industrial court has met every test imposed upon it, including the present "stress" test, said Gov. Henry J. Allen today in a talk before the Industrial Court of the state at the Madison Park auditorium.

The industrial court in Kansas is operating, the governor said, and the results are producing sufficient coal for the transportation and industries of the state. The men in Kansas know that if they want to work, they have the protection of the court. They know that if they are injured, they will be taken care of. They will not be hurt if they choose to work.

JAS. PRICE'S TALL CORN IS TOPPED IN J. C. FLEGEL GARDEN

Indian Hill Farmer Has 8-foot Product in His Garden, also Red Ripe Tomatoes

The 8-foot corn, growing "miles-a-minute" on the farm of James Price of Price Prairie, as reported on farm news page of Monday's Tribune, already has a rival, or at least one rival that has been heard from.

Tuesday morning J. C. Flegel, 610 Powell street, who has a large garden on Indian hill, called up The Tribune to inform the editor that he had corn that reached 8 feet tall. All the corn will bear at least one ear and some two, said Mr. Flegel.

"Say, I know Jimmy Price, and if he wants to come down and look at my corn I will give him some nice big, red, ripe tomatoes picked from my garden," said Mr. Flegel.

SKIFF IS OVERTURNED

TWO GIRLS DROWN
OCOONTO, Wis.—Irene Crane, 15, and Anna MacCarlson, 19, both of this city, were drowned in Green Bay Monday afternoon when the small skiff in which they were riding was capsized by the wind. Miss MacCarlson's body was recovered last night, but Miss Crane's body has not been found, despite the fact that the bay is being carefully dragged. The girls were members of a picnic party.

The art of moulding and casting in bronze was invented 700 B. C.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully. If you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup of glass with a little warm water is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.

In The MOVIES

SHOULD ONE ALWAYS "HONOR THY FATHER?"

"Honor Thy Father, that thy day may be long."

And yet if "thy father" is not worthy of honor, is his cruelty revolting to you, is it a sin to turn against him and cleave to the man who means happiness?

This is the problem that faced the heroine of "Tillie," a new Mary Miles Minter starring vehicle which opens at the Riviera Theater for two days beginning today. And its solution forms the dramatic climax of a story which is said to blend in an unusual manner the entertainments elements of pathos, drama and humor.

Noah Beery, villain of a score of other famous plays, is tight-fisted "Jake Getz" while Alan Forrest plays the male lead.

CONSTANCE BINNEY CHARMING AS FACTORY GIRL

"First Love," now showing at the Majestic Theater, is a gripping story of life and romance among the poor, typical of those thousands of working young people in every city to whom amusement parks, street car rides and love-making interrupted by vigilant "cops" offer their sole chance for romance.

Miss Binney plays Kathleen O'Donnell, a little factory worker who breaks with her parents because of her lover, one of those much-beperformed and mustached parasites with which most cities are infested. Before she learns his unworthiness there is started a train of dramatic events that make simple and gripping story a poignant sketch of real human life.

STRAND TODAY

A shipwreck pictured with all the consummate mastery of D. W. Griffith is but one of the big episodes that make "The Fatal Marriage," starring Wallace Reid and Lillian Gish, and now at the Strand Theater, a drama of truly unusual proportions. It is based upon Lord Tennyson's immortal poem "Enoch Arden" which through generations of school children has been memorized by millions in all parts of the world.

The shipwreck in itself is a most thrilling episode. It is done with all the finish and mastery that marks the bigger Griffith productions. The great sailing vessel on which Enoch embarked against the wishes of his young wife, meets thundering storms. It is swept fore and aft. The waves lash the hull with merciless blows. Enoch and his mates are imprisoned in a cabin but, when the huge combers dash against the walls the cabin is swept into the sea and the men with it. They are carried by some kind fate to an uncharted island where two of the survivors succumb and Enoch alone survives.

From this point on the story moves with truly powerful dramatic force. The return of the bearded Enoch to his home, years after his disappearance, to find his wife married to another is a dramatic moment that every one who sees the picture will long remember.

RIVIERA FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

To the woman folks the showing of "Headin' Home" means more than it does to either youth or man. In the first place, "Headin' Home" tells a tale that reaches down to the fundamentals of human life—mother, it depicts that earthly saint as she really is, lovable, sympathetic and sacrificing. She plays a most important role in the building up of manhood out of a lad who is scared and belittled by a Puritanical community.

Every mother will want her son to see "Babe" Ruth in "Headin' Home." Although a ball player, "Babe" is, after all, a living example of clean living, a "model husband" and to his relatives and more intimate friends a "big boy." But he is more. Experience has taught him that he must be versatile and he is that, for his work in "Headin' Home" is as great a hit as his accomplishments on the diamond.

CASINO TODAY

Alice Lake, the Metro star, when called upon in an interview to answer the question, was quick with an affirmative reply.

"Of course the flapper has a soul, and a mighty precious one at that," said Miss Lake. "Only she doesn't go about nowadays talking about it. 'Soulfulness' went out with the Grecian bend. The clinging vine style has given place to the clinging skirt. The old gesture was demure reticence; now it's outspoken sophistication. But girlhood has not changed fundamentally. It is just wearing a new fashion."

Miss Lake's newest picture is "Hate," which will be seen today at the Casino Theater.

Crucible Declines, But Other Shares Show Gains; Studebaker at New High Level
NEW YORK—Crucible reacted 2 1/2 points from its early maximum. Advances of one point each were made by Bethlehem, Midvale and United States Steel. Crucible extended its decline during the year's best price. Mexican oils continued to move forward with domestic issues, including California, Texaco and Pacific Oil. American Car, General Electric and Baldwin Locomotives made gains of 1 to 3 1/2 points. Domestic textiles and rubber strengthened with some of the food specialties. New York Central, Union Pacific and C. & O. comprised the heavy losers. Call money opened at 1 percent.

Wall street was inclined to take a more hopeful view of the cooling of the road. Prices at the outset of the stock market. Crucible Steel was the feature, falling one point at a sale of 2 1/2 points which was extended to seven points in the next few transactions. Gulf States Steel rose 1 1/2 points. American Car, 1 1/2 points. With large fractional advances for Baldwin, Mexican Petroleum and several of the domestic textiles.

WHEAT MARKET HIGHER
Prices Firmer With Absence of Definite Development in Real Estate
CHICAGO, Ill.—Absence of any definite indication of progress toward settlement of the rail strikes, let to upturn in wheat prices Tuesday during the early transactions. Bulls put stress too on estimates that 700,000 to 1,000,000 bushels had been taken for a slight sag, then by fresh general gains.
In the last half of the session demand slackened, the buying side of the market seeming to be without many friends although values were 13 to 18 cents higher than Tuesday. The close was unsettled at 1/4c net decline to 1/2c advance with September $1.12 to 1/2c and December $1.14 1/2.

STATE LABOR BODY MEETS AT OSHKOSH FOR 30TH SESSION

Annual Convention of Federation Opened With Address of Welcome by Mayor

MEETING TO DISCUSS ACTION ON ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL AFFAIRS

Debate Expected on Plan to Organize Farm-Labor Party

OSHKOSH, Wis.—(By The Associated Press)—The Wisconsin State Federation of Labor opened its thirty-third annual convention here Tuesday to consider organization problems and outline the course of action of wage earners of the state on economic and political questions affecting their interests.

Assembling delegates were of the opinion that during the course of the four-day convention, action would be given the recommendation of officers of the federation that Wisconsin workers be represented at a national conference to be held in December to organize a new Farmer-Labor party. The political situation in this state is not so much a matter of the immediate launching of another political organization at this time, but of organizing and reported, suggesting concerted action by labor organization in clear members of the legislature favorable to their interests, rather than creation of a general party.

McHenry Welcomes Delegates
Representatives of over 200 local unions, comprised of 60,000 wage earners, were welcomed to the city by Mayor A. C. McHenry of Oshkosh. An opening address was given by Charles H. Brown, chairman of the local convention committee. Organization of the convention was then completed.

Two questions outside of the attitude of the workers on political problems were of particular concern to the delegates, judging by their expressions—first, the action on the part of the workers to curb the power of courts both state and national, and the necessity for organization in the legislature to prevent the nullification of the Wisconsin compulsory education laws.

In this report to the convention, Henry Ott, general organizer of the state federation, declared that "no amount of legislation can remove the many injustices from which the people suffer until the judges shall have been shown of their power to annul acts of lawmaking and have been made responsive to the will of the people."

"Constitutional provisions and statutory enactments have been mutilated or ignored until the safeguards of peoples liberties have become almost meaningless," he said. "The United States supreme court has been as defiant of the people as the federal and state courts."

Hit Use of Child Labor
The general executive board of the federation in its report took the stand the workers must actively support the compulsory educational laws against "hitler" opposition by those who have profited by the use of child labor."

"It must be clear to every thinking person that consolidated capitalistic interests organized into a money trust must be destroyed before freedom can be the lot of the people," the general organizer continued.

This will require control of the entire machinery of government, legislative, judicial and administrative. Militant action on the economic field must be coupled with collective action of the workers on political problems.

Speaking of the present railroad shopmen's strike, the organizer's report declared that "it is becoming more plain to members of unions that concerted thought and action by all groups of an industry would greatly minimize the sacrifices when combating the well organized forces of wealth, although there is no doubt the shopmen will give the reds a battle worth while."

The report of J. J. Handley, secretary-treasurer, shows that during the year fourteen unions affiliated with the state federation, seven withdrew.

The Wear Is In A Roof—Not On It

The service you get from asphalt roofing depends on the toughness and durability of the impregnated felt that gives it body and strength. A roof doesn't wear down; it wears out.

Long life is built into Flex-A-Tile Roofing, FELT FIRST. Felt-making is an art in itself—an art that more than 50 years of Richardson experience has reduced to a science.

In Flex-A-Tile Shingle Roll Roofing you get the very best grade of slate-surface roll roofing with an unusual added feature—the appearance of individual Giant Shingles, molded on. Shingle Roll gives the beauty of an asphalt shingle roof at less than half its cost.

FLEX-A-TILE HOUSE TOPS

The double coating of crushed slate from our own quarries at Flex-A-Tile, Georgia, furnishes a rich, coloring of natural green (or red if you prefer), adds to the looks of the roof and carries the approval of the Fire Underwriters Laboratories as a fire-resisting roof covering.

Flex-A-Tile Shingle Roll Roofing can be laid right over old wood shingles by anyone who is handy with tools. It lies flat and stays flat.
